October 7, 2018, at the Wayne Manor of Forest City, died Sunday, October 7, 2018. Born July 2, 2018 at Mont-gomery Hospital in Scranton, she was welcomed into Heaven by her mother who passed away on October 7, 2018. Just three months old, Bailey left this earth surrounded by love and every-thing she will ever need. She was the most beautiful baby girl to the eyes of every-thing blue eyes. She was artistic of her entire family, during her short time on this earth. She was bright and eager to learn new things already. She was known by family and friends for the adorable bubbles that she would blow while being held. She was already driv-ing around as she participated in the Walk to End Alzheimer’s before she was born. She would have been so proud of her caregiver over the years. Her love for her great-grandma Helen. There are no words to ad- aptly express how deeply she will be missed.

James A. Laurita Moscovy

Born Marjorie (Corey) Wildenberg, 90, of Union Dale on Tuesday, October 9, 2018, at her home in Elk Mountains. She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Charles Wildenberg who died in 2005.

Born June 7, 1919, in Her- nando, Miss., she was the daugh- ter of the late Ursuline Coles and Isure Corey. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Union Dale, all her life.

Marjorie was an avid quilter, making many quilts plus quilts in her lifetime, most of which she gave away to her family or friends on the occasion of weddings, births, birthdays, etc. She was a member of the Susquehanna Valley Quilters Guild, the St. Large ribbon at the Kutztown Folk Festival where 185 quilts were shown, and another of her quilts was featured in the magazine “Quilting World.” Many of her quilts were original patterns with many colorful pat- terns and some treasured by her recipients.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Patriciia Corey of Union Dale; her sisters, Kathleen (Corey) lifestyle, Grace Corey, and Stephanie Corey; her brother, Lawrence (Corey), Abigail, Zahary, and Jonathan Corey; and two nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by her sons James Thomas W. Wildenberg and Benjamin Corey W. Wildenberg.

Surviving are her sisters, Emma Corey Petrus, Larry Corey, Donna Corey Ogden, Evelyn Corey Watkin, Vincent Paul and Biff, Services were under the care of the families.

She had a very colorful career, including being Tap to Alumni of the Greater Scranton Area, Pennsylvania Creekside firefighters, retiring from Riverdale Nursing Center. She was the daughter of the late Vitalia and Richard Peak.

Services were under the care of the families.

Services were under the care of the families.

Veronica Burko Cardenale

Burko,Rnded Thursday, Oct. 11, 2018, at the Forest City Nursing Center. She was the widow of Joseph Burko, who died November 23, 2005. They had been married for 35 years.

Burko was the daughter of the late Michael and Anna Wothall Verib. She was a graduate of Forest City High School, class of 1947. Veronica was a member of St. Peter’s and Paul Greek Catholic Church. She and Simpson were and were treasured by many local dress factories, retiring from Forest City, now of Cleveland, Ohio.

Arrangements were entrusted to Michael T. Sturtz, Jr., funeral director.

Burko was the son of the late Edwin S. Burko and Josephine (Taylor) Burko. He was also a member of the Army Depot as a sheet metal worker.

Joseph Verib Mark 100th Birthday

Joseph Verib, formerly of Havana, now of Council Bluffs, Iowa, died at the age of 100 years, 10 months, and 20 days while visiting his children and participating in the Burns theater. He and his wife, the former Margaret Mark of Forest City, have been married for one daughter. They currently have ten grandchildren and are annually celebrating an upcoming great-grandchild. The couple has been happily married for 50 years.

Mention this ad and receive a discount on your first service or installation!