LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

This note brings my renewal check and an expression of thanks for keeping me informed of interesting events and people in "Small Town USA." You do it like no one else.

It is always sad to see the discontinuation of a business enterprise of long standing; and I am especially saddened to learn of the demise of The Franceski Lumber Yard that was founded and so capably run by my kin for over a century, a historical record of which many family members can be proud. Congratulations to all who played a role in such longevity, and wishes for a wonderful future going forward.

Sincerely,
Merilou (Franceski) Effinger

Veterans honored at FCRHS Mem. program

Grant Palmer, a 2005 graduate of Mountain View High School, was the principal speaker at the annual Memorial Day program of Forest City Regional School held Friday, May 24. The annual event, which this year had FCRHS senior Anthony D'Antuono as master of ceremonies, invites area veterans to the inspirational program, preceded by a luncheon for them at the school. About a dozen veterans were guests.

Former IT head at FCRHS David Daugherty presented the annual Sgt. Andrew Brown Gold Medal to Kimberly Graham. Mr. Daugherty gave some reminiscences of his friend and former classmate, Sgt. Brown.

American Legion Auxiliary President Pauline Wilcox presented the winner of Miss Poppy essay contest, Alyssa Cahoon, and the 8th grade medal winners, Riley Bosick and David Heath, along with runnerups Gabby Rydzik and Justin Pecko. The winner of the American Legion essay contest was Hannah Slivkanich, with runnerup Grace Ursich.

The Forest City Regional Band under the direction of John Scavone, and the FCRHS chorus directed by Alison Yuravich, presented several music selections. There were several patriotic powerpoint presentations shown to the assembly.
